

Ninety years ago, in the early morning of April 9th 1917, Canada's brave soldiers began their incredible assault against the German enemy forces occupying Vimy Ridge. Where other armies had tried before and failed, the Canadians succeeded but not without tremendous cost.

During the early years of our parade, thousands of World War One Veterans marched. This August, we will remember them and the ones that were left behind.

SATURDAY AUGUST
18TH
2007

86th
EST. 1921

WARRIORS' DAY PARADE

Celebrating the 90th Anniversary of The Battle of Vimy Ridge

Vimy Ridge

1917

2007

www.thewarriorsdayparade.ca